

Corporate Data Protection and Employee Privacy Policy

1. Purpose

This policy establishes the company's obligations under the Digital Personal Data Protection Act (DPDP Act) for the collection, storage, and processing of employee personal data.

2. Data Retention

Employee personal data, including identification documents and payroll records, shall be retained for a period not exceeding 7 years after the termination of employment, unless a longer period is required by applicable labour or tax law.

3. Consent and Notice

The company shall provide clear notice to employees regarding the purpose of data collection and shall obtain explicit consent before processing sensitive personal data, in accordance with the DPDP Act.

4. Data Breach Response

In the event of a personal data breach, the Data Protection Officer must be notified within 24 hours, and affected employees along with the Data Protection Board of India must be informed as required under the DPDP Act.

5. POSH Act Compliance - Internal Committee

As mandated under the Prevention of Sexual Harassment (POSH) Act 2013, every office with 10 or more employees shall constitute an Internal Committee (IC) to receive and address complaints of sexual harassment. The IC must include a Presiding Officer who is a woman employed at a senior level, and at least one external member from an NGO or association familiar with issues of sexual harassment.

6. Annual Compliance Filings

Under the Companies Act 2013, the company must file its Annual Return (Form MGT-7) and Financial Statements (Form AOC-4) with the Registrar of Companies within the prescribed timelines following the Annual General Meeting.

7. Labour Code Obligations

The company shall comply with the Code on Wages, the Industrial Relations Code, the Code on Social Security, and the Occupational Safety, Health and Working Conditions Code, ensuring timely wage payment, provident fund contributions, and maintenance of a safe working environment.
